JAMESTOWN SETTLEMENT

2110 JAMESTOWN ROAD
WILLIAMSBURG, VA 23185

At Jamestown Settlement, a living-history museum of 17th-century Virginia, try scraping a dugout canoe, steering with a ship's whipstaff or wearing armor to experience life in the Jamestown colony. Expansive exhibition galleries and an introductory film, 1607: A Nation Takes Root, trace Jamestown's beginnings in England and the first century of the Virginia colony and describe the Powhatan Indian, English and west central African cultures that converged in early Virginia. At outdoor re-creations of a Powhatan Indian village, three 1607 ships and the colonists' fort, and a seasonal riverfront discovery area, costumed historical interpreters fire matchlock muskets, craft objects from wood, metal, stone and bone, and cultivate crops. Make room for the memories with museum gift shops and a café.

Eyewitness accounts of the Revolutionary period accompany a chronology of events that led to the decisive American victory at Yorktown in 1781. Outdoors, historical interpreters engage visitors in everyday life during the Revolutionary era.
