

The Annual Fund helps to support special events such as Children's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. King of Williamsburg, Virginia, are members of both The 1607 Society and The Legacy Society. The Legacy Society recognizes and honors those who have thoughtfully included the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation in their estate plans. We thank those donors for their investment in the future of the Foundation. For information on how to support the educational mission of the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation through a bequest or other deferred gift, please contact Mrs. Carter S. Sonders, Chief Development Officer, at (757) 253-4139 or at carter.sonders@jyf.virginia.gov.

ANNUAL FUND
Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation, Inc.

*Preserving the past.
Shaping the future.*

Preserving the Past

The stories of the people and places that made us Americans come to life each day at our museums – Jamestown Settlement and the Yorktown Victory Center – and in classrooms throughout Virginia and beyond.

Your gift to the Annual Fund helps support the outdoor living-history programs and traditional museum galleries that make Jamestown Settlement and the Yorktown Victory Center places that educate and inspire, all year long.

Shaping the Future

As an Annual Fund donor you can take pride in the programs you help support, such as:

- Acquisition and conservation of important artifacts
- Educational materials for visitors and students
- Interpretive programming needs
- Planning and development for special exhibitions
- The maritime education program

"I know no way to judge the future but by the past."
