Jamestown Settlement

Explore the world of America's first permanent English settlement and the Powhatan Indian, European and African cultures that converged in 17th-century Virginia through documentary film, indoor gallery exhibits and outdoor living history. Board a replica of one of the three ships – Susan Constant, Godspeed and Discovery – that sailed to Virginia in 1607. Discover the early years of the English colony in a palisaded colonial fort, and try on armor or play a game of ninepins. Visit a re-created Powhatan Indian village for a glimpse of how Virginia's coastal inhabitants lived, and tour a riverfront discovery area to learn about the vital role of waterways in 17th-century travel and commerce.

Yorktown Victory Center

Take part in the drama of the American Revolution from the beginnings of colonial unrest to the formation of a new nation through evocative galleries, film and outdoor living history. Follow the "Road to Revolution" timeline to learn what led to the conflict. In the museum galleries, witness firsthand accounts of men and women who lived during the Revolution and encounter the fascinating story of ships lost during the 1781 Siege of Yorktown. In a re-created Continental Army encampment, join a cannon crew and visit the camp surgeon to learn about 18th-century medical care. On a re-created 1780s farm, try chores of a Tidewater farming family such as weeding the garden and processing flax.
