Jamestown Settlement
A living history museum explores the world of America's first permanent English colony. A film and gallery exhibit trace Jamestown's beginnings in England, the first century of the Virginia Colony, and selected cultures of Pre-Columbian Indians, Europeans, and Africans who converged in 16th-century Virginia. Outdoors, in re-creations of the colonist's fort, three ships, a Powhatan village, and a riverside discovery area, historical interpreters depict life in the early 1600s. Gift shop, cafe. Located on Route 31 South at the Colonial Parkway near Williamsburg.

Yorktown Victory Center
Through gallery exhibits and living history, the Yorktown Victory Center chronicles America's struggle for independence from the beginnings of colonial unrest to the formation of a new nation. Exhibits provide eyewitness accounts of the American Revolution, explore the story of the Battle and other British ships lost in the York River during the 1781 Siege of Yorktown, describe Yorktown's role as an 18th-century port and chronicle the development of a new government with the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Historical interpreters in outdoor re-creations of a Continental Army encampment and 1780s farm depict military and domestic life during the Revolution. Located on Route 1920 at the Colonial Parkway.
